Make a difference with your team

Families need you now more than ever.

Habitat has helped more than 29 million people obtain safe and decent housing. In Australia, the Covid-19 pandemic will have even greater consequences for the communities we work in, particularly for our neighbours across Asia and the Pacific.

We understand how important a safe home is in times of crisis. However for many, they don't have the luxury of a decent place to take refuge and stay healthy during this global pandemic. Please help us continue to build safe homes with access to clean water and sanitation so that the most vulnerable can have access to safe housing.
